Dear edith:

Re: your card asking for information on Emma
T. Kendrick d 1928 Pascagoula married to James Ware
Seay. Married in 1884.

I do not believe that Emma T. Kendrick was an orphan. I found her obituary in the Chronicle Star March 2, 1928. She is buried in Machpelah Cemetery here.

According to her obit she was 67 years old when she died and she was from Coffeetown, MS in Yalobusha County. She had sisters married to a Mahew and a Morris (I believe it is Morrison) .

Enclosed are copies of the obit and the Mayhew family from Yalobusha County History. Also enclosed is a copy of the 1870 census of Chickasaw County (which is near Yalobusha) showing the only family I could find with children that matched her obit.
Even though there is a disparity in age of Emma compared with her obituary.

There is still one Seay living here. He is H. K.
Seay, 703 11th St., Pascagoula, MS 39567. He is retired former Superintendent of Pascagoula High School.
Your correspondent may wish to write to him.

Hope this help. Come to see us!

Sincerely,

Jean Strickland

MAYHEW, PROF. GEORGE WASHINGTON

F339

Prof. George Washington Mayhew, M. D. (1804-72), was a son of Rev. John Love Washington Mayhew and Elizabeth Selfe, from Loudon Co., Virginia. He was born on his father's 3,000-acre plantation near Mayhewtown, Iredell County, N. C., and moved to Beaver Creek in Kershaw District, S. C. in 1819 with his elder brother, Dr. Ezekiel Polk Mayhew and with many Love, Self, Washington, Willis, Gowing, Gardiner and Lucas relatives. Some of these same families later moved to Pickens County, AL.

with the Wiers and other Mayhew cousins, and some came on to Yalobusha County in the 1830s.

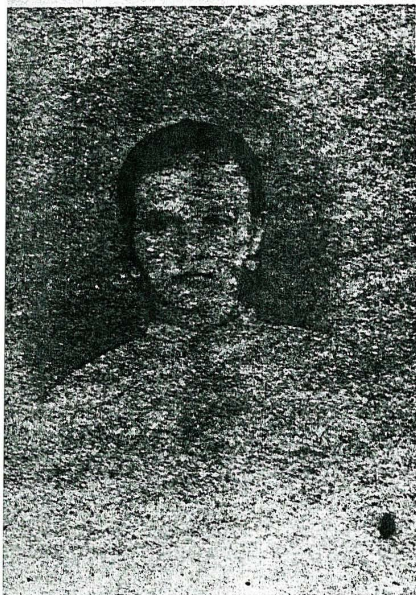

Prof. Mayhew married Mary Turley Williams (1810-96) of Kershaw in 1831, a daughter of Robert Williams and Mary Turley, and connected to the Perrys through marriage. Mrs. Mayhew was a friend of Jefferson Davis' first wife.

They came to Yalobusha County with the earliest settlers in 1832, and began buying land here by 1834, apparently for speculation, since the whole family did not officially move here until 1837.

Prof. Mayhew came to own a great deal of property in Yalobusha and adjoining counties and nearly 270 slaves, on his two estates, "Oakland," and his "Redgrass Plantation" which was 8 miles east of Grenada. These Prof. Mayhew practiced medicine for the irst few years in Yalobusha County before ettling at his plantation on Redgrass Creek. He also taught at the Grenada Female Academy and in Memphis. Mayhew Streets n Memphis and Grenada were named for im.

Many of Mayhew's family died in the 1878 ellow fever epidemic, but his sons built ractically all of the early roads in southern Yalobusha and eastern Grenada Counties, in order to get across their plantations, most of which lie on the floor of Grenada Lake today.

CHILDREN OF Prof. G. W. MAYHEW & Mary Turley Williams were: (1) Dr. Ezekial Bolivar Mayhew (1832-1875), unwed; Civil War soldier and surgeon; right knee, wounded for life.

(2) Mary Patience Louisa Mayhew (circa 1834-45).

(3) Missouri Jane Peach Mayhew, (1835-1878), married Capt. Saxton Smith Angevine (1835-78) from New York of ancient French Ancestry; a Confederate, demoted from rank of Colonel, he was made Provost Marshal at Grenada and First Commandant in charge of Ft. Grenada. Children: Mary Louisa (. 1878), Warren Ione ("Cissye) Angevine Cole, Allan James Sr., Dr. Lena Angevine Warner and Harriette Josephine "Hallie" Angevine Wier. Dr. Warner was the 1st Registered Nurse in the South, helped discover the cause of yellow fever, co-founded the American Red Cross, was a famous woman doctor, etc. Hallie A. Wier (eir) helped organize "Dixie" Chapter, U.D.C., the Eastern Stars, and accredited group of DAR "Members-at-Large," and also helped organize a nursing home for elderly ex-slaves near Grenada, the "Old Sweet Home", which the State Archives lists as the 1st in North Mississippi; it also provided financial aid to indigents. Allan Angevine, Jr. married his cousin, Madge Weaver, granddaughter of Antionette Fraser Weaver, 1st-cousin of Mary Turley Williams Mayhew.

(8) G. W. Mayhew, Jr. (circa 1845-83), married 1-22-1866 to Mary E. Kendrick, his best man being William B. Winter.

(9) Isabella Samantha Selfe Mayhew (1848-1935) wed Capt. Miles Walter Rose (1836-1908), no children.

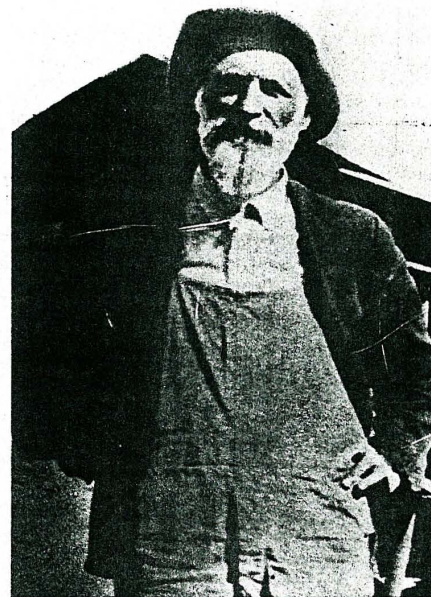

10) Alice Eugenia Mayhew (1852-78) married Robert Young (1850-78) of Youngsport and Youngs Landing. He owned a store at Grenada and was the first man to sicken and die in the 1878 yellow fever epidemic, which spread from Grenada to Memphis, and up the Mississippi River Valley as far as Illinois to claim more than 20,000 victims. His bride followed him to the grave. The 1st victim was a Mrs. Fields, whose townhouse in Grenada was next to the Walthalls; but the Fields plantation was in the country and adjoined the Mayhews' swamps and marshes.
